Third suspect in custody from April homicide

Michael Jarmon awaiting extradition from Nevada

Shakopee, Minn. – Law enforcement officers have taken into custody the third and final suspect in the murder of a 19-year-old Shakopee man in April.

Michael Devon Jarmon, 31, of Plymouth was arrested Saturday, Aug. 3 in Las Vegas. He is being held in a Nevada jail, awaiting extradition to Minnesota.

In July, Jarmon was charged in Scott County District Court in connection with the homicide of Marcos Pantaleon on April 18, 2013, during an armed robbery at the victim's home. Jarmon was charged with five felonies, including second-degree intentional murder and first-degree aggravated robbery.

Two other men were arrested earlier this year in connection with the incident. Justin Kenyatta Watson pleaded guilty to second-degree unintentional murder in July. The third suspect, Steven Andre Moore, also faces felony charges and is being held in the Scott County Jail.

The Shakopee Police Department is not looking for any additional suspects at this time.
